PREFACE.

PRESENTED herewith is the catalogue of a fine and extensive collection, mostly the property of a well known amateur relinquishing the pursuit; among its numerous, interesting and valuable pieces, we desire to call attention to the following: ancient coins, the gold daric of Darius I; foreign gold, the Augustalis of Frederick II; Ferdinand and Isabella, double ducat; the ten and five ducat pieces of Ferd. III, of Austria; the superb ten ducat piece of Fred. Carl, of Holstein; the beautiful set of proofs of Java, and the remarkable series of Cochin-China, in gold and silver; the fine lot of U. S. Mint issues of gold, and the gold coins issued during the early days of the discovery of that metal in the West, pieces which are becoming very scarce and valuable. The superb series of French medals is one worthy of much attention, and particularly in the series of Napoleon I; among the War Medals and Decorations are several which are but seldom seen. The English series, while not extensive, yet contains some valuable pieces, viz.: Ryal of Edward IV; £3 in gold of Charles I, struck at Oxford in 1643; foreign Silver Coins and Medals are represented by an extensive series, among which will be found many of importance and rarity. To the French pattern twenty-five francs, five dollar piece, for the International Coinage, we would call especial attention as but one other is known. The U. S. Mint Series contains an unusually fine 1794 dollar, three 1836, two 1839, 1852, 1854 (brilliant proof), 1858, dollars, also some fine cents.

The grand array of medals here offered is well worthy the notice of all who are interested in history, and lovers of art, especially so as modern coins no longer record events as did the Roman, or portray Art ideals of mythology as the Greek.

“The medal faithful to its charge of fame,
Through climes and ages bears each form and name;
In one short view subjected to our eye,
Gods, emperors, heroes, sages, beauties lie.”—Pope.

Where we were able to discern the medals to be restrikes, they are so described; but in the French series, as a rule, these are as fine as originals, and can only be detected by the fact that after a certain period the mint authorities minutely punched the name of the metal on the edge; of course, copies, reproductions or counterfeits are so described.

Collectors will oblige by sending in their bids early, to whomsoever they may choose to appoint their agent.

Bids will be executed by the other regular dealers and ourselves. Catalogues will be priced after sale for $1.25.

We guarantee all the coins and medals genuine unless otherwise described.

Respectfully,

S. H. & H. CHAPMAN,

INTERNATIONAL COINAGE.

- 600 1721 1867 France. Head of Napoleon III, laureated, l., by Barre. R. OR. ESSAI MONETAIRE 1867, surrounding 5 DOLLARS 25 FRANCS. Borders serrated. Edge milled. Gold. Very fine. Of excessive rarity, but one other specimen believed to be extant, which is in a French gentleman's collection. Of great interest and value (should bring over $100) it being the pattern issued by the French Mint for the proposed International Coinage. We purchased this piece in Paris last summer, and were informed by the seller (and he a very competent judge) that he knew of but the one other specimen, and that the French National Collection did not possess it.

- 1722 1868 United States. Head of Liberty l., the hair bound with a fillet, diadem inscribed LIBERTY, star in front; UNITED STATES OF AMERICA 1868. R. Branches of oak and olive forming wreath, enclosing 5 DOLLARS 25 FRANCS. Borders serrated. Edge plain. Aluminum proof. Extremely rare. The design of Paquet, die sinker of U. S. Mint, Philadelphia.
